LILT AWARDS, GRANT AND STIPEND

LILT may present yearly awards, a grant and a stipend to recognize outstanding students and teachers of the LOTE community. Teachers must be members of LILT to be eligible. The deadline for submissions bearing a United States Post Office postmark is April 15th.

Section 1. Friend(s) of Foreign Language Award

A plaque of recognition is awarded to individuals or associations who advocate, promote and/or further LOTE study on Long Island above and beyond their daily responsibilities.

Section 2. Kathleen Ann Lyons Memorial Excellence in Teaching Award

This five hundred dollar ($500) award is to recognize and honor the work of outstanding LOTE teachers on Long Island. The nominator must submit his/her letter of nomination, two letters from either a supervisor, chairperson, principal, assistant superintendent or superintendent, a letter from a present or former student or parent, a curriculum vitae of the nominee, and either one of the following from the nominee: a videotaped lesson, sample lesson plans with activities, curriculum material the nominee has developed (which may be made available for future LILT publications and/or LILT functions) or one student portfolio. The nominator must be a member of LILT and have taught for at least five (5) years.

Section 3. Lucille DiPietro Lambert Student Award for Excellence in Second Language Studies on Long Island

This five hundred dollar ($500) award each may be presented to two outstanding graduating seniors whose teachers are able to acknowledge their fine language achievement. Each teacher may nominate more than one June graduate, and must submit the following: a formal letter of nomination and one letter of recommendation from another LOTE teacher both on school letterhead, a school language profile sheet, extra-curricular language activity advisor evaluation(s), an official student transcript and a student statement with signature. The nominating teacher must be a current member of LILT, have taught the student, and the student must be currently enrolled in a LOTE class.

Section 4. Stipend to Attend Professional Conferences Other Than LILT

Up to two stipends per year may be awarded to LILT members to help defray the costs of attending professional LOTE conferences other than LILT sponsored conferences (one stipend per LILT member per year). The applicant must be a current member of LILT for the last two consecutive years, prepare a written statement in response to the following: How I hope to benefit from attending the ... Conference, complete an application form, attend at least three (3) workshop sessions, write a short article for the LILT Newsletter about the meeting, submit to the Selection Committee Chairperson within one (1) month after the conference: an evaluation of the conference including a summary of three (3) workshops attended, and original receipts for reimbursement up to two hundred dollars ($200).

Section 5. Teacher Incentive Grant

This grant of up to six hundred dollars ($600) is awarded for a proposed project or projects a teacher may wish to inaugurate for which a district would not normally budget. The applicant must submit one (1) letter in support of his/her project from a building or district supervisor, complete an application in support of the proposal, agree to send a short article about his/her project for publication at the end of the first year of implementation (August 1st) and agree to give a short presentation at a General Membership meeting. The Committee will entertain expenses for the following: books, magazines, realia, media materials (CD's, DVD's, photo memory cards for digital cameras, and other items required to complete the project.). If the grant is approved, the recipient will be reimbursed upon completion of his/her project and submission of paid, qualifying receipts.

ARTICLE V

LILT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

LILT holds an annual conference to help LOTE teachers improve and maintain their professional skills. LILT may elect to partner with other LOTE organizations, associations and/or other institutions of learning. Workshops are given in different languages and levels by LOTE professionals from Long Island. In-service credit is also available to attendees with the prior approval of their school districts.

Section 1. In the absence of an annual conference co-chairperson, the position shall fall to a member of the partnership organization with the input of the current LILT President.

Individual LILT memberships must be paid by February 15th of the current year in order for students to be eligible.

ARTICLE VIII

LILT STUDENT PLAQUES

Each year LILT makes available, for purchase by school districts, plaques to recognize Long Island students who have demonstrated excellence in foreign language study. One plaque is awarded to one student who is currently enrolled in the most advanced language course in his/her school, has demonstrated the most outstanding performance in LOTE studies, and is selected by his/her teacher or appropriate school personnel. These plaques are available to graduating junior high, middle school and high school students. The deadline for orders is March 31st bearing a United States Post Office postmark.

The fee for the Junior High/Middle School plaque is $70.

The fee for the Senior High School plaques is $85.

The above fees include postage and administrative costs.

ARTICLE IX

LILT PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

LILT offers each winter a series of two-hour, professional development workshops on Long Island for LOTE teachers on weekday afternoons and Saturday mornings. Teachers may earn in-service credit, at the discretion of their school districts. If approved, LILT will send the participating teacher a letter at the end of the workshop series verifying workshop attendance. These workshops are open to LILT members ($15 per workshop) and to non-members ($25 per workshop). An honorarium of one hundred dollars ($100) per workshop shall be awarded to presenters of the LILT Winter Workshops. Presenters will not pay any registration fees.

ARTICLE X

LILT ONLINE SERVICES

LILT offers its members online services to pay and register for LILT memberships, conferences, and workshops. The chief administrator of this service is the LILT Treasurer. Members who wish to participate in this service must be registered with PayPal, and those who do not wish to do so, may continue to pay and register for LILT activities directly with the treasurer or respective chairpersons via United States mail.

ARTICLE XI

LILT WEBMASTER AND DATA TECHNICIAN

LILT shall have a Webmaster and a Data Technician as occasional workers to take care of LILT business. The Webmaster will maintain LILT's website (LILTFL.ORG) with the help and input of the Webmaster Liaison and Assistant. The latter will prepare postings in PDF format for the Webmaster. The Data Technician will help the LILT Treasurer maintain LILT's database, perform secretarial duties, and whatever else the President and/or the LILT Executive Board deem necessary. The Webmaster and Data Technician will be compensated at a rate to be determined from time to time by the Executive Board.

1. LILT Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy

Long Island Language Teachers, Inc. ("LILT") will not condone, permit or tolerate any form of discrimination and/or harassment by or against any employee, customer, vendor, independent contractor, member or other individual with whom our employees/volunteers, members and/or independent contractors come into contact in connection with their employment/duties performed on behalf of LILT based upon age, race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or other protected class or characteristic established under applicable federal, state or local statute or ordinance.

Sexual harassment is a form of illegal sex discrimination. Sexual harassment refers to behavior that is unwelcome, personally offensive, and which interferes with our work effectiveness. Federal law defines unlawful sexual harassment as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, whether by male or female, when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment/volunteer service, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's service and/or participation in organizational activities or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Individuals who believe they have been subjected to discrimination or harassment as described or have questions about whether certain conduct is unlawful should immediately speak to any former President actively serving on the Executive Board or the current President. This is particularly important in cases involving sexual harassment where there can be uncertainty about what constitutes unlawful conduct.

Any former President who receives a complaint of discrimination or harassment or becomes aware of conduct that may constitute discrimination and/or harassment must immediately notify the President. Should the President be unavailable for any reason, the person who is in receipt of a complaint and/or aware of prohibited conduct may notify the First Vice President in lieu of the President. The First Vice-President shall then notify the President as soon thereafter as practicable, so that an investigation may be undertaken.

All complaints will be investigated promptly and the existence of a complaint will be disclosed only to the extent necessary to make a prompt and thorough investigation or to take appropriate corrective measures. In all cases, the person who initiated the complaint will be informed of the findings and disposition of the matter at the conclusion of the investigation. The Executive Board will ensure that there is no coercion, retaliation, intimidation, discrimination, or harassment directed against any individual who registers a complaint or serves as a witness on behalf of another individual.

Persons who engage in prohibited discrimination or harassment will be subject to appropriate discipline up to and including termination of employment, service, and/or membership in LILT.

I hereby confirm I have read, understood and accept the above written Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy, and I will abide by it.

2. LILT Conflict of Interest Policy

The Long Island Language Teachers, Inc. (LILT) is a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization, and maintenance of its tax-exempt status is important both for its continued financial stability and for public support. Therefore, the IRS as well as state regulatory and tax officials view the operations of LILT as a public trust, which is subject to scrutiny by and accountable to such governmental authorities as well as to members of the public.

Consequently, there exists between LILT and its Executive Board, Officers and employees and the public a fiduciary duty, which carries with it a broad and unbending duty of loyalty and fidelity. The Executive Board, Officers, and employees have the responsibility of administering the affairs of LILT honestly and prudently, and of exercising their best care, skill, and judgment for the sole benefit of LILT. Those persons shall exercise the utmost good faith in all transactions involved in their duties, and they shall not use their positions with LILT or knowledge gained there from for their personal benefit. The interests of the organization must be the first priority in all decisions and actions.

Conflicts of Interest may arise in the relations of Officers, Executive Board members and employees with any of the following third parties: persons and firms supplying goods and/or services to LILT, donors, agencies, organizations and associations which affect the operations of LILT, family, friends and other employees. If a conflicting interest exists, it may be undertaken ONLY if:

- a.) The conflicting interest is fully disclosed to the Executive Board.
- b.) The person with the conflict of interest is excluded from the discussion and approval of such transactions.
- c.) A competitive bid or bids or comparable valuation exists.
- d.) Executive Board determines that the transaction is in the best interests of LILT.

As part of the Conflict of Interest Policy, LILT requires Officers, Executive Board members and employees to decline accepting certain gifts, gratuities, entertainment, consideration, favors or remuneration from individuals or companies that seek to do business with LILT except for gifts of a value less than $50 which could not be refused without discourtesy.

I hereby confirm I have read, understood and accept the above written Conflict of Interest Policy, and I will abide by it.

3. LILT Ethics Policy

It is the policy of the Long Island Language Teachers, Inc. (LILT) that its Executive Board members and employees uphold the highest standards of ethical, professional behavior. To that end, these Executive Board members and employees shall dedicate themselves to carrying out the mission of this organization and shall:

Section A:

- 1.) Refrain from dispersing or forwarding any business of the LILT Executive Board (electronic and non-electronic communications, minutes, etc.) to others outside of the Executive Board membership without the permission of said Board.
- 2.) Hold in confidence any matters discussed during Executive Board meetings.
- 3.) Refer any person desiring information, or any LILT Executive Board member disseminating information concerning the proceedings of Executive Board meetings to the current President of LILT, or any former LILT President actively serving on LILT's Executive Board.
- 4.) Respect the structure and responsibilities of the Officers and Executive Board members, provide them with facts and advice as a basis for their making policy decisions, and uphold and implement policies adopted by the Executive Board.
- 5.) Engage in carrying out LILT's mission in a professional manner with respect, concern, responsiveness, fairness, impartiality, efficiency and effectiveness.
- 6.) Collaborate with and support other professionals in carrying out LILT's mission.
- 7.) Exercise whatever discretionary authority the Officers and Executive Board have under the law to carry out the mission of LILT.

Section B:

- 1.) Act in such a manner as to uphold and enhance personal and professional honor, integrity, and the dignity of the profession.
- 2.) Recognize that the chief function of LILT at all times is to serve the best interests of its constituency.
- 3.) Hold paramount the safety, health and welfare of the LILT membership in the performance of LILT duties.
- 4.) Treat with respect and consideration all persons, regardless of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, maternity, marital or family status, disability, age or national origin.

Section C:

- 1.) Accept as a personal duty the responsibility to keep up to date on emerging issues concerning the affairs of LILT.
- 2.) Keep the LILT membership informed about issues affecting it.
- 3.) Conduct organizational and operational duties with positive leadership exemplified by open communication, creativity, dedication, and compassion.

I confirm I have read, understood and accept the above written Ethics Policy, and I will abide by it.

H. About LILT With A Listing Of Its Past Presidents

Founded 1980
"The Secret of Success is Constancy of Purpose"
 Disraeli
 (1804 - 1881)

Long Island Language Teachers Inc. is the single most comprehensive organization of second language teachers in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. Its membership includes K-16 teachers and supervisors of French, German, Italian, Spanish, Classical Languages, ESL (English as a Second Language) and ASL (American Sign Language).

LILT was organized by a group of dedicated educators who recognized their obligation to professional growth and their responsibility to successfully service and educate their students. They were equally united in their commitment to promote and advance the positive image and viable position of second language instruction on Long Island and in New York State.

LILT provides:

- A forum for ongoing communication and exchange of ideas in foreign language education
- Opportunities for professional development
- Direction and leadership on local, state and national issues regarding standards for second language instruction and acquisition
- Leadership in the development, innovation, and implementation of curricula and programs
- Sponsorship of regional events and programs which promote teacher/student participation and excellence
