LILT 2009 Winter Workshop Descriptions

Session 1: Energize Your Classroom with Music Videos

Presenter: Anahí Walton-Schafer
Location: Northport High School Room H-125
Date: February 23, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Infuse your curriculum with culturally relevant music and videos. Learn how to search for, download, and save selected materials as well as develop activities and games to keep students engaged throughout the lesson. Materials in German, Spanish, French and Italian will be provided and attendees will have new lessons to use right away. Recommended: Please bring a jump drive to save work.

Session 2: Webquests & Virtual Field Trips

Presenter: Nicole Faherty
Location: Division Ave. High School, Levittown Room 236
Date: Tuesday February 24, 2009 4-6 p.m.

How can we get students to experience the benefits field trips have to offer without ever leaving the classroom? Webquests allow you to take your class to a new level and place using technology. Learn to search and create your own webquests and virtual field trips. Take your students on an academic journey through the world!

Session 3: Using ipods to Build Oral Skills

Presenter: Carmen Campos
Location: Cold Spring Harbor High School Room J40
Date: Thursday February 26, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Learn about podcasting and how to use ipods for recording student responses. Receive rubrics for oral assessments and view student podcasts. There will be a limited number of ipods on hand, so please bring your own.

Session 4: Creating Your QUIA Website

Presenter: Tim McCarthy
Location: Oyster Bay High School Room 208
Date: Monday, March 2, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Create your own website that includes a message to your class (or classes), add activities to your site, create activities and quizzes, upload useful web links, create a user profile, etc. Please come prepared with materials that you are currently working on to help create your site.

Session 5: Using Web-Based Tools in the LOTE Classroom

Presenter: Seema Sumod
Location: Plainview- Old Bethpage Middle School Room 311
Date: Thursday March 5, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Learn to incorporate technology into foreign language instruction. Try free web-based tools that will enhance your lessons.

Session 6: Voice Thread

Presenter: Susan Quintyne
Location: Herricks Middle School Computer Lab
Date: Tuesday March 10, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Learn how to use VoiceThread, a free web 2.0 tool, to engage students in using the target language for writing and speaking about culturally authentic images, documents and videos.

Session 7: Celebrate! Activities and Resources that Bring Culture Alive

Presenter: Dana Giangrasso
Location: Division Ave. High School, Levittown Room 201D
Date: Wednesday March 11, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Looking for fresh ideas to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month, Italian Culture Month or National French Week? Develop a month long unit of media resources, online resources and projects geared toward raising cultural awareness.

Session 8: Paper Folding in the LOTE Classroom
Presenter: Elizabeth Yu Ellsworth
Location: Herricks Middle School Room 101
Date: Tuesday March 17, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Paper folding has many applications – books that unfold to reveal hidden panels inside, cards that pop up, origami figures that wiggle and twist. These can all be used in the LOTE classroom to tell stories, poems, illustrate words, ideas and experiences in an imaginative and inventive way. Examples of activity ideas used in grades 6-8 LOTE classes will be shared. Handouts and directions for all activities will be distributed to participants. Please bring a pair of scissors and a glue stick to this workshop.

Session 9: Basic Power Point
Presenter: Rebecca Gutierrez
Location: Salk Middle School Levittown Room 102
Date: Thursday March 19, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Learn to create basic Power Point Presentations. This workshop is designed for those with little or no knowledge of Power Point. Please bring a jump drive to save your work.

Session 10: Defogging Blogging: How to Use Blogs in the Language Classroom
Presenters: Tania DeSimone and Anthony Vittorino
Location: Herricks Middle School Room 403
Date: Saturday, March 21, 2009 10 a.m.-Noon

Learn to create a blog, find out how it works and how it can be implemented within the context of the language curriculum, such as reading and writing journal entries, creating a forum for debate and discussion, publishing a personal writing portfolio, as well as disseminating authentic materials and keeping students informed.

Session 11: Projects and Portfolios for Checkpoint C
Presenter: Jennifer Nesfield
Location: Northport High School Room H-125
Date: Wednesday March 25, 2009 4-6 p.m.

Explore the use of portfolio and themed projects to develop students' listening, speaking, reading and writing abilities in Checkpoint C classes. Examples will be given in French, but can easily be adapted to any language.

Session 12: Creating SMART Board Lesson Plans
Presenter: Dan Saitta
Location: Valley Stream Central High School Room 309
Date: Saturday March 28, 2009 10 a.m.-Noon

View SMART Board lesson ideas and create your own SMART Board lessons. Please bring a jump drive and a current instructional unit.

Session 13: Art in the LOTE Classroom
Presenter: Scott Wokolaski & Michele Klatch
Location: Herricks Middle School Art Room 2
Date: Tuesday March 31, 2009 4-6 p.m.

This workshop will be a hands-on session combining world language and art. Piloted at Herricks for the 6th grade, this newly designed course is an interdisciplinary experience using the culture of different languages to influence and enrich the art experience. Examples will be given in Spanish and Italian, but may be applied to any language.
